I am searching for a respectable woman interested in a long term relationship ending in marriage. She would have the same interest that I have, but also her own so we could share each others interest. She believes that a successful relationship is based on love, trust, honesty and communication. She should be family oriented, sweet, cute, caring, loving, and easy to talk to.

貴方の将来のパートナーへのメッセージ。 One of my favorite things I really enjoy doing with my baby doll is just staying at home cuddled up on the sofa watching a movie. I would like her to make me feel that when I'm with her I'm the luckiest and happiest man in the world.
